Fight Song

For it's a U-rah-rah for Waterford.
For it's the school we love the best,
When our voices sing in one accord,
And we're ready to stand the test.

Bring out our royal banners, Onward into victory, For there are many schools in other lands, But it's Waterford for me, rah-rah
U-rah-rah Waterford
U-rah-rah Waterford
U-rah-rah Waterford
Yeah, Waterford!

FROM DAWN TO DUSK

We see each other
in the dim morning light.
We flirt our consciences to get to know each other--
A web of desire, the desire of companionship is formed.

In our noontime, all is still. We observe, while shadows are gone. Suspended in time, the sun is gone.

Gradual afternoon sun.
Each smile and laugh influences us. A web of closeness is formed.

Evening. It is long.
Strength is needed to face the night. We walk with our shadows behind and face what is ahead.
The strength we need, the closeness we desire comes to us.

Dusk. We find it hard to see one another. No shadows bar us, yet we miss our friends who give us confidence. But we have the strength to walk in the dark--until dawn breaks again.

FALL

Precious And Few

The Homecoming game against Elkhorn was not one of our best games, but the loss did not effect our spirits much. We cheered until the very end. The dance, featuring E. T. C., which was more than a superb band, was a great success. The announcement of Homecoming Court came Thursday night at the pep assembly. This years royalty were: Freshman Cindy Hoppe and Mark Stanger, Sophomores Cheryl Gorn and Randy Knurr, Juniors Mavis Ranke and Paul Nelson, Seniors Brenda Peterson and Brian McDonald. The 1976 Homecoming King and Queen were seniors Joe Sheahan and Debbie Revolinski. The time we had at Homecoming was precious, and the minutes few, but the memories of these special times are many.

The temperature was nothing to smile at on Thursday, October 21, as we assembled for the third annual WHS Homecoming Parade, but smiles were all we saw. The band, Pom-Pon girls, cheerleaders, football players, and countless others assembled at the library, making last minute changes on floats and trying to stay warm 'till the parade started. We all worked hard on the floats-would it pay off? For one class it would. This year, the Soph. class took first place honors; the Juniors, second; and the Seniors brought up the rear. By the time the parade reached the football field, our final destination for the pep rally, toes were numb, fingers were like iciles, and we all had frozen smiles. But there was one thing that wasn't cold-our spirits. The anticipation and excitement rose as Paul Charapata was named Mr. Ugly 1976. And there was more. The pennies and nickles we had been using to buy spirit links all week were put on display. Seniors took a commanding lead, followed by the Freshmen, Juniors, and Sophomores. The chains decorated the football field for the game yet to come...

South Pacific

Dancing native girls ... an exotic island, the island of your dreams. An island where romance happens and breaks.

The stage of W.H.S. transported captive audiences to the far away South Pacific for the fall musical. Students were transformed into nurses, seabees, officers, and natives. But no place is perfect, as the males expressed their woes in "There is Nothing like a Dame," while the females scorned them in "I'm Gonna Wash that Man Right Outa My Hair." But despite the difference of opinion, the romantic leads had their "Enchanted Evening" and "Younger Than Springtime" love affair.

The cast, crews, Director Miss Foster, choreographer Mrs. Bousquet, music directors Mr. Pierce and Mr. Krzyzaniak, all worked hard to make the South Pacific a reality. With much talent and energy, the show was once again a success.

The 1976 football season was one of too many moral victories. The squad displayed enthusiasm, courage, commitment to play as a team through out the season. The team put forth great effort in games against tough foes like Burlington and Delavan, but only attained moral victories. However, the team hung in there and showed what it could really do, when it romped Union Grove 24-6 to spoil the Bronc's Homecoming. The season was one of many disappointments--but everyone gained something through their efforts and experiences.

Reesman And Eidsvoog Advance To Sectionals

For the seniors the tennis season came and west like hitting a ball over the net -- here one moment and gone the next! The underclassmen are anxiously waiting for next years matches.

The varsity did fairly well this year in sub-sectionals and sectionals, with all the players getting into the second round play-offs and one doubles team getting into sectionals.

The J. V. gave a good performance during the season, winning most of their matches. Next year it will be their turn to get into the fun of playing varsity matches.

Girls Cross Country:
Girls cross country started its first season this year. With lots of potential our hopes were set high, the goal -- STATE! Girls joined the team to keep in shape for other sports, and for the challenge that running two miles presents. But the running was only a part of the challenge, the course was another! The girls ran up "mountains" through pure mud -- and in all kinds of weather. The competition was tough. It was our first year and we were competing against some of the best teams in the state. Captains Bridget Zenz and Brenda Peterson kept our spirits up, while Coach Satariano kept us pushing!

Cross Country '76 Regional Champs!

Cross Country is a very important sport at W.H.S. If you don't think so, just ask any C.C. runner! Cross Country is one of the hardest working and least recognized teams in the school. Prospective competitors should know before they start training that there are no large crowds of screaming fans to push them on. Pride, guts, and a tremendous sense of self-satisfaction are the only factors which keep runners going during the grueling 3-mile race.

The 1976 Cross Country team, though hurt hard by injuries throughout the season, turned potential into results. An early highlight of the season had to be the strong 2nd place finish at the tough New Berlin Eisenhower Invitational.

Through tremendous team and individual efforts, the Wolverines then went on to win the Class "A" Regional. Each CC runner should be commended for a fine season.

VOLLEYBALL

This year was the second year of volleyball with a little more success than the first. Although we didn't win any matches, we won alot of new skills that we didn't have time to master yet. But, hopefully, next year we'll master those skills and just wait. We'll get'em next year! J. V. did better, winning as many as they lost. These people are waiting anxiously for playing on varsity next year.

This was the first year for a freshmen team. They also did well as they look forward to playing higher positions next year.

Some Teach, Some Play Chess

FUTURE TEACHERS

Under the guidance of Mrs. Albright, students of the WHS are spending their free time helping the younger generatoin back at the Waterford Graded School. During study halls, members of the Future Teachers Organization learn the essentials of helping and understanding younger students, not only in school work but in everyday life situations as well. During the school year, these people develop and grow, experiencing many of the joys and frustrations many adults face today. A very rewarding and enjoyable pastime well worth the time put into it.

CHESS CLUB

Spirit And Achievement

PEP CLUB

Pep Club is an organization for the student body. Anyone may join but so far we haven't had any male members. We try to raise school spirit by making signs, planning pep week for Homecoming, and attending all games and school activities.

N. H. S.

These students should be commended and recognized for their outstanding efforts and achievements -- N. H. S. does this.

Honduras And Denmark At WHS

The AFS Club is responsible for helping the foreign exchange students to become familiar with the school and community. Through this club WHS students meet, talk to, and learn from AFS students. Hopefully from these experiences students learn how to get along together and begin to understand the need for world cooperation.

"Hi: My hopes and dreams turned into a reality when I was chosen to come to a pretty place where people are kind and friendly like they are in Waterford. Thank you for giving me a year of happiness and many new experiences in my life. I never believed that I would be chosen as an AFS student for Waterford High School. This is the place where I had the opportunity to make new friends and meet people from a different country. These days, weeks, and months in Waterford will never be forgotten. I have shared moments of sadness, joy and happiness with all of you. I hope to see you in the near future and go over our moments of joy and happiness. You have all been good friends to me! "My stay at Waterford is the best thing that has happened to me. It is a great experience to visit a foreign country and find out what it is really like instead of just reading and hearing about it. I must say my stay has been a happy surprise. Everybody has been so kind and helpful to me and so far I have enjoyed it very much. I have tried a lot of new things and had a lot of fun. I want to thank all at WHS for what they have done for me. You have taught me a lot about the American way of life and I hope that I in return, have given you a little idea about what Denmark is like. I want to give a special thanks to my host family, the Mittkes who have accepted them as a member of their family and I must say they have done it in a great way. I very much look forward to the remainder of my stay and I am sure a lot more of new experiences are awaiting me. Thank you everyone and with best wishes ever.

EMERALD ECHO: Under the new leadership of Mrs. Held, the Emerald Echo got off to a booming start this year at the 13th Annual High School Newspaper Conference at the University of Wisconsin -- Whitewater. As editor-in-chief of the Emerald Echo this year, Laura Loebe is enthusiastic over the co-operation of the students and their dedication. We put out some of the biggest issues ever this year! Mrs. Held, organized and efficient, feels that our paper was one to be really proud of. Some of the features regularly written were: Beauty Beat, "Uncle Alfred", Letters to the Editor, and other current news from school.

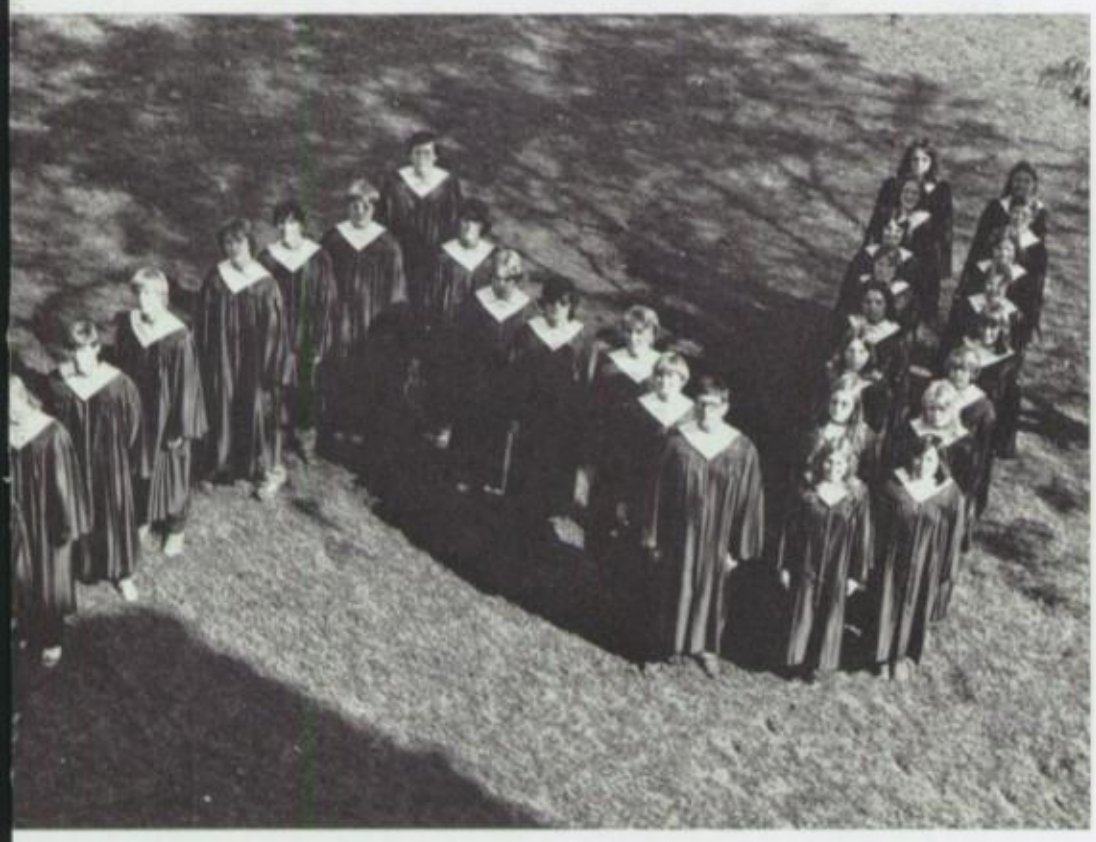
After 2 Years Absence



CONCERT CHOIR

This year's concert choir was comprised of sophomores, juniors and seniors. They were happy to have a familiar face directing them. Mr. Pierce is in charge of all the choirs as well as conducting extra curricular activities. The choir entered Class A competition and put on a performance well worth the time and effort spent in preparing it. Mostly religious and the more difficult pieces of music. The Christmas and Spring Concerts presented by the choirs were received by an enthusiastic audience and helped lend warmth to the seasons.

MIXED CHORUS

7th hour chorus consisted of mostly of freshmen with one exception -- a sophomore. There are six regular members and eleven more who alternate from band to chorus every other day. On days the band students are not in chorus, we complete exercises on the piano, learn how to read key signatures and various other things pertaining to music. We sing on days the band students have chorus.

3RD HOUR CHORUS

Treble Choir is comprised of girls from all classes. Under the direction of Mr. Pierce, this choir sings more midern and contermorary songs than other choirs. This group does not compete in the contests and did not participate in the school concerts. They do practice for the solo and ensemble contest held every year for all musicians and singers. They performed very well this year!

Once this season is over Mr. Krzaniak works hard to perfiect selections for the two concerts, tours and competition in the spring. WHS has a very talented band that the whole school is proud of!

The Pep Band plays for basketball games and has a lot of fun doing it! This year our student director is Rick Davison who does an excellent job.

The WHS faculty for the 1976-77 school year consisted of seventeen women and twenty-nine men. Four new teachers joined the group. Mr. Pierce returned to our school after working elsewhere for two years. We had one student teacher from the University of Wisconsin, White water; he was in the Special Education room. Six of the faculty members have their quarters in the new annex this year. They are happy with plenty of room and much more equipment to work with.

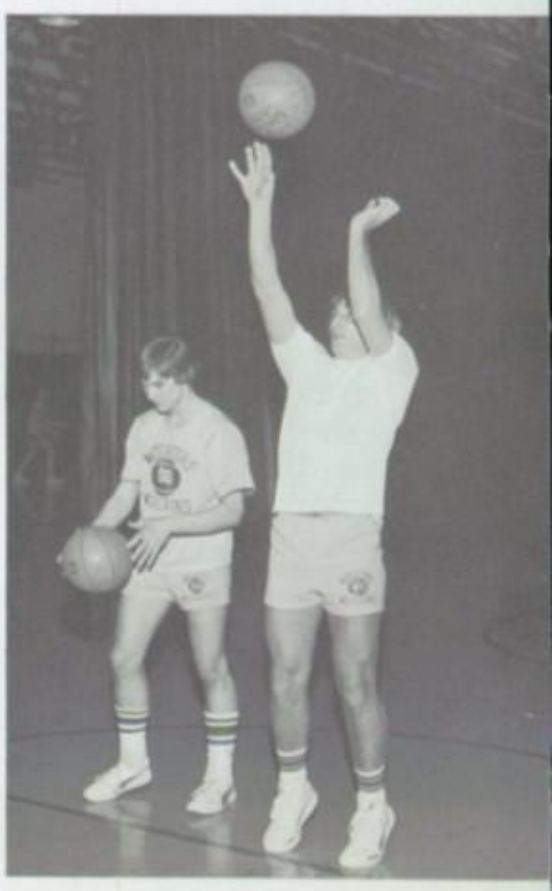
WINTER

One Of The Conference's Best!



VARSITY BASKETBALL

We all had our anticipations of a good, if not great, season. Coach Christiansen added his vast coaching knowledge and experience into the team effort which produced a good season. For many of us, this was our last year on varsity. For others, it was only the beginning. Together we were a team; proud of our victories and accomplishments; disappointed in our failures; together, on the court; and always giving everything we could in team effort to win.

J.V. BASKETBALL

Coach Harmeling prepared us and stressed a good mental attitude for playing basketball games. We gained experience in our J.V. games and got a chance to prove what we could do in some varsity games. We worked hard to try to move into a varsity position. Many of us will be a part of next years varsity and through J.V. we will be ready to compete against any varsity team.

SOPHOMORE BASKETBALL

We seek victory; we play to win; we won't accept defeat; we know only one course and that is the way to victory and being #1. As our nickname "super sophs" indicates, we have achieved victory. Undefeated as freshmen, we have the longest winning streak in W.H.S. basketball history. Coach Martin drilled us on basics which helped make us an even stronger team. Our goals are high and we will continue to seek victory.

FRESHMEN BASKETBALL

We have learned alot about basketball as freshmen and out team has shown potential as well as the ability to win. Coach Baas did a good job to promote a winning attitude, which, added to our freshmen spirits and energies created the basketball hopes of the future.

You can't practice spirit, you just have to have it! The only things you can practice are the cheers and chants, but your spirit must come from within. We try to rub off some of our spirit and enthusiasm to the fans and the atheletes. Many times it feels like a losing battle, but if they catch on to just one more cheer, it will seem worth it!

Gymnasts Successful Despite Equipment

Boy did we ever have our ups and downs! Along with a beam that wouldn't stay up, and unevens that wouldn't stay together, we had to survive the cold chills of winter as we charged from the New building to the old for floor exercise practise after the wrestlers were done. At the beginning of the season, we sustained ourselves with injuries, then sickness. But as the season progressed, performances were perfected, new and more difficult stunts were attempted and a whole new will for doing things was experienced. The in-coming freshmen and new gymnasts had quite a load on their shoulders, too. They composed a majority of the j. v. positions and learned the ups and downs of being a gymnast.

We went out there young and inexperienced, with just four upperclassmen on the team. We worked hard during practices and games. Even though it may not have payed off in the sign of a victory, it gave us experience and knowledge, for the next time!

Season Gratifying For Dedicated Wrestlers

The WHS wrestlers put in a tough and gratifying season this year. Ask any wrestler and you will find that these three and one-half months are filled with anxiety, pain, anticipation and satisfaction. Like most sports, wrestling is a combination of mental toughness, physical strength, talent, and most of all dedication. However, a wrestler has an added pressure of making weight -- plus the sole responsibility of his own fate once he is on the mat. The varsity, J. V. and freshmen teams gave all they had, and received a lot. Captains Joe Sheahan and Rick Rieckoff led the team through thick and thin and showed the fans a team they could be awfully proud of.

Underclassmen

At Last We're Here!

The First Day of School. It seemed just like any other sunny day in late August except for the fact it was the beginning of a new school year. This still may not be a bit surprising, but it sure was for all us freshmen. There were so many thoughts going through our minds: terrified, excited, confused. Whatever we felt then we will always remember.

Our Job: Decorating The Showcases

The freshman activity we all enjoyed was Homecoming. This included our annual football game and dance. We chose Cindy Hoppe and Mark Stanger as our freshmen representatives. After the festivities at school many couples went out to eat at various places. After surveying many of the freshmen we find that most of them found homecoming enjoyable.

Highlight Of The Freshmen Year

The Freshman Party. Every spring the freshman class gets together to celebrate the previously successful magazine sale. It's a great evening of fun, food, and good music. Many committees joined together to have a good freshman party. Alot of decorating by these committees helped brighten the night in the cafeteria. A good time was enjoyed by all.

New Experiences For Freshmen

We really feel pretty much at home now at WHS. We know most of the teachers and where most of the rooms are located. Most of us are looking forward to our sophomore year when we can play host to the new freshmen -- showing them around and getting them very lost like our hosts did to us. Some of us even ended up in the basement area for class!

Driving: Soph's Main Goal!

Watch out, here we come! The Motor Vehicle Dept. will never be the same after the class of '79. A big step for sophomores is getting a drivers license. First, you must get your temps, which is nerve wracking enough -- then when you are 16 down to the Motor Vehicle Dept. for the real thing. If you don't make it the first time try, try again!

Our Float Won!

A giant cookie monster took shape causing all the local stores to be sold out of green and white napkins. The 8 ft. "monster" was on the homecoming float built by the sophomores. Many extras resulted from the making of the float such as hayrides and hatfights. The float was a winner and the class was extremely happy about it!

"Go; fight, win!" Those familiar words ring out over the football field. The goal line has been crossed by one of our players. As the winning touchdown is scored a cheer rises from the stands. We're really proud of our sophomore football team who had a great 6-2 season. Wait 'til next year guys!

Girls This Is Your Chance!

February time is Sadie Hawkins time at WHS. This is the one dance of the year where the girls ask the guys and usually end the evening by going out to dinner. For this occasion the guys are the ones who are waiting for a date just like the girls wait at homecoming time! All who attend this dance have a really good time -- one reason being (guys opinion) that the girls must pick up the tab!

Ordering Rings — Big Event

During the first part of the calendar year the excitement of ordering class rings is at its peak! Although the tradition of having a class ring is an old one, it is very new to the class of '79. Each student has his own idea about purchasing a ring, but to many of us it a highlight of our sophomore year.

Three Down, One To Go

It's kind of scary, but still exciting to think that next year we'll be the mighty seniors. Next year will be the last year that our class will be able to have fun as a class before we graduate and go our seperate ways. Many will be going on to college. many will go into business and planning their futures.

A Year Of Firsts

Junior year for many juniors means getting your first job and being able to get out of school early. If Juniors having an eighth hour study hall have a job or are needed at home, they can get out of 8th hour. Some of the juniors are employed at local businesses such as Dick's, Albee's, McDonalds, or at farms. The Juniors are very lucky because this is the first that they have been able to get out early.

Juniors Break Tradition Of Prom

This years juniors wanted to "break" the traditional way of prom! Everyone got involved by filling out a questionnaire asking them how they would want their prom. The majority of the juniors thought that both Prom and Post-Prom should be held at some place away from school. Alpine Valley was decided on and the band "Etc." played.

SENIORS

"Senioritis" Affects Seniors

As our senior year got underway we experienced mixed feelings. The ever so popular "Senioritis" set in; most of us were affected, "I don't care" became a commonly used phrase. As seniors, we, realized the seriousness of the decisions we had to make. Caught up in making plans for our future, high school didn't seem to have as much significance. Assignments were forgotten; homework was left undone... As graduation approached we realized why everyone says that your high school years go by quickly. We had grown as a unit, the class of "77". It would be hard to take that step which sets us apart from one another. Each of us will have different things to remember about W. H. S.; special places, special things, and very special people. These we have come to know and will always remember.

Senior Honor Romper Room

The feelings of many of the faculty members toward senior "honor" study halls is shown on the above title. Although they complain with a lot of lip service, most teachers are overjoyed not having seniors in their study halls. Seniors are given more freedom and responsibility in honor study halls, and actually many of the students do study regularly. These study halls are a tribute to the administrators for their confidence in us.

Senior Memories

Freshmen year was a time of excited anticipation and worries. Our class worked together on our freshmen party and on the magazine sales. Already, although strangers to friends were found, and relationships were cemented to last throughout high school. Smiles and tears made up our first year at WHS; that, and loads of fun! As Silly Sophomores we earned the pep award for their spirit at games and pep rallies. When we received a second on our Homecoming float, our spirit of unity was strengthened; and our determination to get first in the future. Love abounded as we prepared for Sadie Hawkins. Nothing could quench our energy. Even the guys sheepishly accepted dates for the dance and helped with the decorations. Halfway through, halfway to go. Juniors. Often we stopped to think how quickly it all was going. But mostly we concentrated on being the best. Juniors dominated varsity positions on most sports, and we proved our determination with a successful prom; resulting from the hard work put into it. We only had one year to go. We made the most of this year! Now we are here. At the threshold of our future, where our dreams are about to become realities. The last three years are the basis of our future. What we did with our studies and how our emotions developed will determine how successful our future is.

Things we want to remember, The things we won't forget, Good times from the present turn into memories better yet! We seniors have a lot to remember. Wondering who those funnylooking kids across the lobby were and then finding out we'd be best of friends... Worrying about who to ask to Sadie Hawkins or Homecoming to find that you waited too long and he or she was going with someone else. Watching the sparks of the "WHS" die out after a long and hectic homecoming week.... Being with the people that we care most about and thinking (hoping) that it would never end.....

High School Friendships

When we were freshmen we couldn't wait to graduate. Now many of us wish we were freshmen again. It is not just the uncertainty of the future, but we all have grown attached to each other in some way. We are friends and we don't want to lose our closeness. We shared many experiences and had many good times together. We matured together and learned a lot of life from one another. It seems sad that our high school years must end, but our memories of school will endure forever.

Senior Early Grads

Every year a few Seniors graduate after the first semester. They are either going on to school or getting a jump on the rest of us in the job market. Whatever their reason is for graduating early, it is obvious to the rest of us that we will miss them. They have been with us for many years and are our friends. We may not see them very often but we wish them the best of luck and we hope we keep in touch so as not to let our friendships cease.

Seniors at Waterford High School are given certain privileges and considerations which underclassmen are not given. Seniors are allowed to prepare their own schedules, while other classmen are not allowed this privilege. Seniors may take more electives, we are given the privilege of "senior honor" study halls enabling us to use the library more freely, seniors have the option of taking a trip to Florida over Easter vacation--these are just some of the privileges that add to the joys of being a senior!

All through high school a pattern is set in front of you. All you have to do is follow the guide lines, and the few decisions you make will not affect you greatly. Then suddenly you are a senior and you're faced with one of the most important decisions in your life. You must decide what course your future will take. You must choose a career--something you will do the rest of your life. It is not easy and it scares us but we hope that our decisions are the best ones for us. As we look ahead we realize that the future is ours!

Although much of our time is spent in troublemaking and laughter, our senior year is a time for much thought on the serious aspects of life. Despite the "Senioritis" that affects us all, we concerned about the future and our part in it. We have used the past three years to establish our identity and individuality. Through our friends, teachers, organizations and parties and other "activities" we have come to know ourselves and accept what we are or try to better ourselves if NEED be.

We're great! We know it! This year's humble seniors began their high school careers as freshmen who slowly emerged from the shadows of the halls to the openess of the lobby. Once out and exposed, the seniors took advantage of the situation and spread their charm until graduation came roaring up. We know we will be missed, but life goes on--you'll make it without us. But seriously, will we make it? We must look ahead. We'll start at the bottom again and with continued efforts we'll make it! We will miss you too, but life must go on.....

DUSK

Gracefully the sun surrenders its high place, and gives way to dusk.
Dusk, the timesess interlude
between day and night.
The day's swift events decrescends into the stillness and peacefulness of evening.

Dusk, the rift between happy day
and ebony night.
We gather outselves and interchange energy for strength to endure
the night, awaiting dawn,
the betrothel of dusk.

- Brigid Eder
